

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 12, 2020

Contact: SHANNON WORSHAM, SHANNON@THEDEMANDPROJECT.ORG

The Demand Project Postpones Gala in Wake of Coronavirus

Tulsa, OK – The Demand Project announced today that it is postponing their 4th Annual Raising Hope Blue Tie Gala planned for March 27 due to heightened concern about large gatherings during the Coronavirus outbreak. The gala is now scheduled for Friday, November 13 at the Silo Event Center, 4629 West 41st Street, Tulsa, OK 74107. The event will begin at 6 p.m.

“While the fundraiser is vital to ensure the continuation of our efforts to eradicate sex trafficking and provide treatment to survivors, we realize that large fundraising events are not the most responsible way to raise money at this time,” said Kristin/Jason Weis, The Demand Project founders. “We intend to move forward with the planning of our golf tournament on June 15 at The Golf Club of Oklahoma and encourage people to visit our website to register for the gala in November as seating is limited to 150 attendees,” said Weis.

If you would like to learn more about The Demand Project and make a tax-deductible donation from the safety of your home, you can visit www.thedemandproject.org

For more information, please contact:

Shannon Worsham
shannon@thedemandproject.org